Nature Camps Assistant – LFS 496 Summer Term 2023

Mentor: Chantal Martin from VanDusen Botanical Garden

Position Location: 5251 Oak Street, Vancouver, BC V5N3M3

Hours: Starting May 2023, option for 3 months at 9 hours per week, or 3 months at 18 hours per week, or 6 months at 9 hours per week

Credits: 3 or 6 credits depending on hours

Course Background

The Career Development Course aims to engage UBC students with their local food system and create opportunities to experience the working environment of a food sustainability focused organization. Students work alongside their mentor, food systems practitioners and faculty to increase their understanding and knowledge of food systems work, from organic agriculture to food production methods, food-focused community engagement, and business management.

Position Details

Camps at VanDusen Botanical Garden are designed with a carefully crafted blend of science, exploration, games, and crafts that gives children the opportunity to learn and play throughout the 55-acre property, while fostering positive stewardship of the environment and an appreciation for the outdoors. As a Nature Camps Assistant, you will plan and deliver agriculture, gardening, and food-themed activities for groups of campers attending VBGA Camps programs.

Students will also have opportunities to network with other food sustainability focused organizations and develop a greater understanding of growing food in urban settings.
